

Media Coverage

Company: AusBiotech
Date: 8 October 2009
Publication: Gold Coast Bulletin
Page: 29

Push for India links

■ THE Australian biotechnology sector could benefit from partnerships with India.

Australia's national biotechnology body AusBiotech said India's industry had strong government support and was resilient and growing despite current market conditions.

AusBiotech chief executive Anna Lavelle said the strength of India's biotech industry highlighted the importance of ongoing government support.

"India offers a lot of potential for Australian biotechnology companies," said Dr Lavelle.