Calzada appoints CEO

Source: News Bites

Calzada Ltd on November 23 announced the appointment of Dr Stewart Washer as CEO.

He has been CEO of a number of biotech companies in Australia and New Zealand, including being chair of Resonance Health Ltd and Hatchtech Pty Ltd and was the founding CEO of Phylogica Ltd up until 2007, before this CEO of Celentis Ltd and earlier managed the commercialisation of technology from AgResearch in New Zealand.

Dr Washer is a director of AusBiotech Ltd, the industry body for biotechnology.

Executive chairman David Franklyn will become non-executive chairman soon.
